

What does Expulsion and Suspension look like for young children?

Nationally...

Drag the school bus to see statistics

Boys are 4 times more likely to be expelled than girls.

Nationally...

Nationally...

4 year olds are 50% more likely to be expelled than 3 year olds.

An illustration of a school scene. In the background is a yellow school building with a clock tower. In the foreground, there are silhouettes of children in red and blue, some holding hands, and a yellow school bus. The sky is light blue with white clouds and a sun.

African American children are two times more likely to be expelled than children of European decent.

Nationally...

Nationally...

5-6 year olds are 3 times more likely to be expelled than 3 year olds.

Nationally...

5-6 year olds are 3 times more likely to be expelled than 3 year olds.

In Pennsylvania...

A preschool* child is 3.33 times more likely to be expelled from state funded preschool than a school-age child is to be expelled from school.

*State funded preschool typically has lower rates of suspension and expulsion.

In Pennsylvania...

School-age African American girls are four times as likely to be suspended than school-age girls of European decent.

In Pennsylvania...

School-age African American boys are more than four times as likely to be suspended than school-age boys of European decent.

In Pennsylvania...

School-age children with disabilities are almost twice as likely to be suspended as school-age children without disabilities.

OCDEL Announcement Suspension and Expulsion